Did cha ever think about dying? I shifted until I was comfortable again on the small boulder. My back felt stiff and my legs hurt from having run so far that day. I stared down at the seven-year old girl sitting at my feet. Her face was dirty and her long, fine, black hair was naturally matted from having been in the open so long. A comb and other toiletries were not available to us on the run. She stared back, twisting a shred of cloth on the skirt of her torn, sooty dress. Did cha ever? she persisted. Did cha ever think about dying? This story actually came to be years before while I was living in the Philippines. One morning I was in the tiny bathroom trying to get the shower to send out some hot water instead of its usual cold spray when a voice, a little girl s raw whisper sounded in my head. Did cha ever think about dying? Nothing like this had ever happened before. Frightened, I feared everything...
