THE THREE FEATHERS: THE MAGNIFICENT JOURNEY OF JOSHUA AYLONG

Stefan\Bolz. Paperback. Book Condition: New. Paperback. 222 pages. Dimensions: 9.0in. x 6.0in. x 0.5in. JANE ERIKSON: Bolz's writing belongs in the rare, ethereal air of The Greats; including Tolkien, C. S. Lewis and Hesse. Read this powerful journey of true and brave friends who communicate through thoughts, then just wait and see. . . It will profoundly influence your life in a deeply moving, positive and personal way. Bolz's imagination is limitless; his symbolism and imagery - impeccable! The Three Feathers is amazing and awe-inspiring. . . an outstanding and captivating read! Bolz's future is bright! THE INDIE BOOK REVIEW: Mr. Bolz has woven a hypnotic tale where friendship and love can overcome the most devastating of enemies -- doubt in yourself. This is a book for all ages. There is danger, yes, and doubt and sadness and loss. But lessons cannot be learned without them, am I right? This book is marvelously innocent and thought-provoking all at the same time. Tired of the jaded and worn-out modern fantasy tale I enthusiastically encourage you to pick up this enchanting fable and rediscover the innocent joy of childhood and the magical wonder of life in this simple yet wonderfully complex story. Joshua and his friends will make you a believer, I promise. KIRKUS REVIEW: Bolz's debut novel follows one brave adventurer; never mind that he has a rooster who can barely fly. Joshua is a proud rooster with bright red tail feathers who lives to protect his coop of hens. But one day, Joshua has vivid dreams that simply leave him wanting more than his formerly uneventful and fulfilling life. So he flies the coop in search of adventure, purpose and the three mysterious feathers that he sees in his dream. Along the way, he meets Grey, a loyal wolf searching the...
