We should advise readers of the Zoophilist who wish to be present at what will, probably, be the largest Antivivisection meeting ever held, to apply early for tickets to Mr. Robert Stewart, 20, Victoria Street, Westminster, if they want seats reserved for them in good parts of the hall. The Right Honourable Lord Coleridge, Q.C., and the Reverend Canon Wilberforce, D.D., have already promised to speak, and it is proposed to have an organ recital before the proceedings commence. We are very pleased to hear of the election of Sir Edward Sassoon as member for Hythe. The Secretary of our Parliamentary League wrote to him and to Sir Israel Hart, the other candidate, and as Sir Edward s reply was the more satisfactory of the two the League used all its strength in his interests. The...
